It's the Law!

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW WHILE LIVING IN IWAKUNI, JAPAN

All military servicemembers, their family members and civilian employees are subject to the protection and obligations of the U.S. – Japan Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA). Japanese civil authorities normally exercise primary jurisdiction for crimes or offenses committed off-Station, and for crimes or offenses committed against Japanese citizens and Third Country Nationals on the Air Station. All SOFA status personnel are subject to the administrative authority of the Air Station's Commanding Officer while they are in Japan.

WEAPONS

ALL weapons purchased in Japan or included in household effects must be registered with PMO and kept on the Air Station. The blades of knives must be no longer than 2 1/4 inches.

HEADPHONES

Wearing headphones while walking, running, bicycling, in-line skating or driving a vehicle is prohibited on sidewalks and roads both on-base and off-base.

RUNNING AND JOGGING

- The recommended primary place for running and jogging is the sea wall. However, all persons jogging or running along any roadway will run on the sidewalk or at least 18 inches from the roadway's edge facing traffic except where construction of the roadway precludes such.
- Persons running or jogging during the hours of darkness are required to wear reflective garment.
